SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

February 28, 2010

8:15 AM and 10:45 AM

The beginning of the organ prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

GATHERING

Preludes and Silent Prayer

Confession and Forgiveness

The assembly stands. All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

In the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

God of all mercy and consolation, come to the help of your people, turning us from our sin to live for you alone. Give us the power of your Holy Spirit that we may confess our sin, receive your forgiveness, and grow into the fullness of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

The assembly kneels. Silence is kept for reflection.

Most merciful God, we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name.

Amen.

In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you. And also with you.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,

he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

A Journey through Lent

*Transforming Lives
with the Gift of Clean Water*

Lent is a period of prayer and fasting. It is fitting for Christians to emulate our Lord and Savior Christ Jesus with a forty day period of sacrifice. Join us on this Journey through Lent and give the gift of clean water to someone in need.

- Over a billion people in the world lack access to clean water – that’s one of every six people on the planet. As a result, 6,000 children die each day due to water-borne disease.
- 80% of all sickness and disease is caused by unsafe water and lack of basic sanitation, killing more people every year than all forms of violence combined (yes, even war).
- Women & children can spend hours each day simply to gather any water they can find to keep their family alive.

You can help. A series of small sacrifices throughout Lent could literally save a life. Here’s how:

- Drink water only. Set aside the money you would have spent at Starbucks or on soft drinks and donate the proceeds to Water to Thrive for a water well.
- Forego the movies. For about the cost of a movie ticket, we can provide clean water for one person – for up to 20 years, the average life time of a well!
- Pray for God’s needy children around the world, especially those without access to clean water.
- Invite others to join you.
- Give as you are able. Use a gold pew envelope and mark it “Well Project”.
